

Approved: July 21, 2004

Kentucky State University Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct

Ethical Principles

The Kentucky State University Ethical Principles and Code of Conduct are intended to document expectations of responsibility and integrity. Exemplary ethical conduct is critically important in our relationships with colleagues, Regents, students, volunteers, contractors, and the public. This statement reflects the values of the University approved by the Board of Regents on July 21, 2004. The following core values guide our decisions and behavior.

Approved: July 21, 2004

While this Code of Conduct provides overall guidance and in some instances interpretation, additional guidance and procedures are found in other official University policy documents, such as the Board Policies, Administrative Regulations, and University Guidelines (the provisions of the Faculty Handbook

Approved: July 21, 2004

Sexual Harassment

To foster an environment of respect for the dignity and worth of all members of the University community, the University is committed to maintain a work-learning environment free of sexual harassment. The policy of Kentucky State University, approved by the Board of Regents, prohibits sexual harassment of

Approved: July 21, 2004

Clarifications and Reporting Violations