

KENTUCKY STATE UNIVERSITY

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

APPEALS TO ACADEMIC STANDING

1. Appeal Procedures and Deadlines

All appeals of academic standing will be heard by the Academic Appeals Committee. The Academic Appeals Committee will be composed only of faculty members and appropriate administrators.

and submitted to the Academic Appeals y prior to the first day of classes as published in mmer session/semester) for which the student is d without exceptional cause which must be ppeals of late withdrawal from courses or from d submitted to the Academic Appeals Committee ext regular academic semester begins.

t the deadline described in Appealing a Course y be granted if the student shows evidence that l before the deadline due to documented

- The Academic Appeals Committee shall meet and two (2) weeks after the last date to withdraw, as alendar, to consider appeals of academic

The Academic Appeals Committee shall meet on other occasions only at the discretion of the Appeals Committee, for example: if the appeal load is heavy, if new evidence is brought forth which affects an appeal already acted upon, and/or if there is any other special circumstance in which the welfare of a student is at stake.

Appealing a Course Grade - To appeal a course grade, a student must follow the process described below:

4.